SAFETY OF THE 'PETREL.'

ARRIVAL AT TAKU.

HONGKONG, November 3.
We are pleased to learn that the U. S. gunboat Petrel (Commander E. P. Wood) has arrived safely at Taku.

The voyage from Manila to Taku occupied no less than fourteen days, and the probability is that it had weather that followed on her departure from Manila Bay made it necessary that her captain should seek shelter. Her safe arrival will be welcome news to the many friends of her officers and men in this port.

M. R. S. JOHNSTON, RAWALPINDI.
Mr. S. J. Johnston, a well-known and tried Chamberlain's Club, Cheltenham, and District, Renfrew, and have given it to travellers who are passing through a hotel I managed. It is a motto I never knew it to fall. It is a motto I can recommend, and one that everybody should keep.

CHAMBERLAIN'S CLUB, CHELTONHAM, AND DISTRICT, RENFREW, is now open to members. It is a large, comfortable, airy, and well-arranged room, with a large library and a conservatory for the use of members. It is a great convenience for the members of the club, and it is a great pleasure to all who frequent it.

THE LICENSING SESSIONS.
A CRITICISM OF THE NEW LICENSING ORDINANCE.

The annual session of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace was held to-day at the Magistracy. Commander W. C. H. Hastings, Acting Police Magistrate presided. The other Justices present were:—Messrs G. Murray Bain, A. Shelton Hooper, R. C. Wilcox, D. R. Crawford, E. W. Mitchell, J. H. Lowry, Dr. Lawson, Hon. F. H. May, J. Dyer Ball, W. H. Percival, A. Seth, E. Byramjee, C. W. Dugan.

THE SURETIES OF APPLICANTS.

Mr. Crawford said:—Before proceeding with the business of this meeting, I have something to say. I have a rather strong feeling, and I think most of my brother Justices will agree with me, that in the new Ordinance no provision is made for the sureties being unconnected with the liquor trade, as is required of those who voice the responsibility of the holder. It is more important even that the sureties than the vouchers for responsibility should be unconnected with the trade. I wanted to mention that personally because I have been a surety for them for many years. This man is not keeper of the house; he is a clerk employed in Douglas, Liverpool's office, and is not connected with the liquor traffic.

Mr. Lawson said:—Before proceeding.

Mr. May.—Has he ever been brought before the Magistrate for disorderly conduct in connection with what you are speaking of?

Mr. May.—No.

Mr. Crawford.—Does it not seem strange that he should have been allowed to have this license so long?

Mr. May.—There have been no complaints against this house before this. The complaints have been this year, pointing to want of supervision of this place. I would like to point out that sub-section 6 of Section 20, of Ordinance 21 of 1886 reads:—
The business of every licensed publican or adjunct licensee shall be carried on subject to the following regulations:—(6) The licensee shall not abandon the occupation of his house, or permit any other person to become virtually the keeper thereof. This man is not keeper of the house; he is a clerk employed in Douglas, Liverpool's office, and is not connected with the liquor traffic.
Mr. Lawson said:—What is the application for?

Mr. May.—I do not sleep there.

Mr. Crawford moved that the application be refused.

Mr. Lawson seconded.

Carried.

Mr. Lawson.—From what time does this refusal take place?

The Chairman.—From 1st December.

Mr. Lawson.—Well there is plenty of time for him to make arrangements.
